VETERAN ASPHYXIALED

M. V. B. Gates of Hopewell Died in Virginia.

Martin Van Buren Gates of Hopewell was found dead in bed in a hotel at Richmond, Va., Tuesday afternoon, October 19. Death was evidently due to asphyxiation, and was turned on in full, and the theory is that he blew out the gas when he retired Monday night.

Mr. Gates was a well-known citizen of Hopewell and was 67 years of age. He served in the 76th Penna. Infantry during the Civil War. Deceased had gone with a number of other Bedford County veterans to Richmond to attend the unveiling of the monument on the Cold Harbor Battlefield. The body will be brought to Hopewell for interment.

Mrs. Daniel Ziegler

Mrs. Elizabeth Ann, wife of Daniel Ziegler, died in St. Louis, Mo., Wednesday, October 13, aged 53 years, eight months and 22 days. The deceased, with her family, formerly resided in Bedford, where she left a host of friends.

Mrs. Ziegler was known to be a beautiful, Christ-like character, cheerful, generous, unselfish, and full of noble deeds. Although her residence in St. Louis was brief, about one year, she soon endeared herself to all who came to know her.

Deceased is survived by her husband, Daniel Ziegler, and by her son, Luther Clark Ziegler, who mourns deeply the loss of a devoted wife and a loving mother. She is also survived by one brother, W. W. Dibert of Whitestone, Md., her father, Henry Dibert, and two sisters, Mrs. Harry Thompson and Miss Jennie Dibert, all of Altoona. The latter sister was present for the funeral services and the interment in St. Peter's Cemetery, St. Louis.

Mrs. Lavinia Frazier

Mrs. Lavinia Frazier died at the home of her son-in-law, Joseph H. Burket, at Chalybeateville on October 16, aged 69 years, eight months and 11 days.

Her maiden name was Lavinia Elvira Hartzel and she was born in Colerain Township. She was united in marriage to David W. Frazier about 37 years ago. One daughter, Mrs. Joseph H. Burket, survives. She is also survived by one brother, William B. Hartzel of near Bedford. She had been a member of the M. E. Church for about 51 years and was a good Christian woman, faithful to the end. The funeral was held Monday afternoon. On account of the inability of her pastor, Rev. F. W. Biddle, to officiate the services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Lingle. Interment in the Bedford Cemetery.

H. B. CESSNA, CASHIER

Deserving Young Man Placed in Charge of First National Bank.

Harold Bertram Cessna, son of former County Treasurer S. A. Cessna, was born at Rainsburg July 21, 1875. At the close of his sophomore year he left college and entered upon the study of law in the office and under the preceptorship of Frank E. Colvin, Esq., and was admitted to the bar in 1902, being later admitted to practice in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Cessna served for a time as Deputy Prothonotary and Clerk of the Courts. He also assisted his father as County Treasurer. In 1906 he was elected to a position in the First National Bank of Bedford and has since been connected with that institution.

JUDICIAL SALARIES AND THE CONSTITUTION

Von Moschzisker Did Not Express Intent of Framers of Organic Law.

JUDGES ARE PUBLIC OFFICES

Debates in Constitutional Convention Clearly Show That Delegates Were a Unit in That View of the Subject.

The general assembly of Pennsylvania passed an act, approved the 14th day of April, A. D., 1903, entitled: "An act to fix the salaries of the supreme court, of judges of the superior court, judges of the court of common pleas and the judges of the orphans' court." Before the passage of this act the total compensation paid out annually for these judges in this state was $566,000; by reason of the passage of said act the total pay of judges was increased to $1,011,500.

The constitution of Pennsylvania, section 13, article III., reads as follows:

No law shall extend the term of any public officer, or increase or diminish his salary or emoluments after his election or appointment.

The state treasurer, under his oath of office to obey and support the constitution, refused to pay the judges the increase given them by said act of assembly on the ground that it was in direct violation of the above provision of the constitution of Pennsylvania. A writ of peremptory mandamus was issued by the court of common pleas of Dauphin county, at the instance of the attorney general, for the use of certain judges therein named, including nearly all of the common pleas judges of the city of Philadelphia, to compel the state treasurer to pay the said increase. This case was heard and the opinion written by Judge Robert von Moschzisker, of Philadelphia, who was then, and is now a common pleas judge of that city, and will be found reported in full in 210 Pennsylvania, commencing at page 372 in the case of Commonwealth vs. Mathews.

Judge von Moschzisker decided that the above act was constitutional and that the judges were entitled to the increase of salary given them by said act, notwithstanding the plain provisions, above quoted, of the constitution prohibiting such increase. In order to avoid and over-ride the above plain language of the constitution, Judge von Moschzisker decided that a judge is not a public officer within the meaning of the above quoted constitutional provision. This was a startling proposition, not only to the legal fraternity throughout the state, but to the laymen as well. The question has been asked throughout the state, both by lawyer and laymen, "Suppose the above act decreased instead of increased the judges' salary, whether or not Judge von Moschzisker would then have found that the above act was constitutional and that the judge was not a public officer within its meaning?"

There can be no misunderstanding of the language of the above constitutional provision. It is as plain as the English language can make it. "No law shall extend the term of any public officer, or increase or diminish his salary or emoluments, after his election or appointment."

Judge von Moschzisker, finding that the language of this provision was too plain to be explained away, then bases his opinion upon what he terms to be the intent of the framers of the constitution of 1873, in which the above provision appears, and tries to show that the framers of the constitution did not consider a judge a public officer within the meaning of article III, section 13, of the constitution above quoted. That the judge is a public officer as much as any other public officer, elected by the people and paid by the people, was so considered by the framers of the constitution of 1873, as shown beyond dispute by referring to the records of that convention; this very question as to whether or not a judge's salary could be increased during his term of office was fully debated and passed upon in that convention, as the following quotations from convention debates will show:

Mr. Calvin—I move to go into committee of the whole for the purpose of amending section 15 (now 13), article III., by adding these words, "except judges, whose salaries may be increased."

In support of his amendment, Mr. Calvin said: "Under the present constitution the salaries or compensations of judges shall be fixed by law and shall not be diminished during their continuance in office. We have in section of the judiciary article as it has passed second reading. By the practice under the old constitution the salaries of judges have been increased from time to time as the exigencies of the time required. Now it is perfectly manifest that while in the 18th section of the article of the judiciary which has passed second reading it is provided that the compensation of judges shall not be diminished during their continuance in office, it is implied they shall not be increased, but under the 15th section (now 13th), I take it for granted, unless there is a qualification added to the salaries of judges could not be increased."

Mr. Kaine—I desire to prevent all rolling upon the subject of the salaries of all officers, judges included. I have seen as much rolling in the legislature in regard to increasing the

ACTUAL STARVATION

F. W. Jordan Gives Facts Regarding Dyspepsia.

Although indigestion and dyspepsia are so prevalent, most people do not thoroughly understand their cause and how to obtain relief. There is no reason why people should not eat anything they desire—if they will only chew it carefully and thoroughly. Many actually starve themselves into sickness through fear or eating every good-looking, good-smelling and good-tasting food, because it does not agree with them.

Dieting cannot cure dyspepsia. If we refuse every article of food that disagrees with us, before long we have nothing left, and find ourselves chronic dyspeptics.

We are so confident that we can furnish relief for indigestion and dyspepsia that we promise to supply the medicine free of all cost to every one who uses it according to directions who is not perfectly satisfied with the results. We exact no promises and put no one under any obligation whatever. Surely nothing could be fairer. We are located right here where you live, and our reputation should be sufficient assurance of the genuineness of our offer.

We want every one who is troubled with indigestion or dyspepsia in any form to come to our store and get a box of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Take them home, and give them a reasonable trial, according to directions. They are very pleasant to take. They soothe the irritable stomach, strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, promote a healthy and natural bowel action, almost immediately relieve nausea and stomach irritation, produce healthy digestion and assimilation, and promote nutrition.

A 25-cent package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets furnishes 15 days' treatment. In ordinary cases this is sufficient to produce complete relief. In more chronic cases, a longer treatment, of course, is necessary, and depends upon the severity of the trouble. For such cases we have two larger sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Bedford only at our store, The Rexall Store. F. W. Jordan.

salaries of judges as I have seen with regard to the increase of compensation of any other officer.

Mr. McConnell—"I am in favor of putting judges on the same footing with every other officer in the state."

Mr. Howard—"I hope that amendment will not pass. The judges are the most important men in the state."

The amendment was defeated. Yeas, 36, nays, 55. Pages 417, 418, 419, 420, Vol. 7, Convention Debates.

Mr. Calvin subsequently moved to amend section 13, article V., by inserting the words, "but which (salaries of judges) may be increased," which amendment was rejected. Page 527, Vol. 7, Convention Debates.

On Oct. 28, Andrew Reed moved to amend the 17th section of the schedule by inserting the words, "nothing contained in this constitution shall be held to reduce the compensation now paid to any law judge of this commonwealth or prevent the same from being increased by law." In support of his proposition Mr. Reed said: "I am aware that the section provides that the legislature shall fix the compensation of judges, but when they fix it, it remains fixed and cannot be increased during the term of any judge in the state."

Mr. Buckalew raised the point of order that in one of the regular articles of the constitution finally passed, it was provided that salaries during fixed terms shall not be increased or diminished, and that it is not in order in this way to repeal that provision in one of the regular articles and provide that salaries may be increased by law.

The chair having ruled against the point of order, Governor Curtin said: "I do not think that the salary of any official in the state should be increased or diminished during the term for which he was appointed or elected. If I were a member of the legislature I would not touch the salary of the most liberal but when I had established an office and fixed the salary, and a citizen of the state goes for that office and goes for that salary he knows what he is after, and I would give him no more during the time of his official tenure." The amendment was defeated. Yeas, 35; nays, 51. Pages 502, 503, 504, 505, 506, Vol. 8, Convention Debates.

A short time before the final adjournment of the convention, Charles R. Buckalew, chairman of the committee on revision, with the approval of that body, drafted an address to the voters of the state, in which the changes in the fundamental law were set forth. The address, which received

CURED BRONCHITIS

Mrs. Hopkins Says Her Life Was Saved—Choked and Gassed for Breath.

"Some five years ago I was taken with a bad attack of bronchitis. I was affected with a bronchial cough and cold, the cough was generally much more apparent at night, and I would wake up choking and gasping for breath, and there seemed to be a terrible stoppage in my throat and tubes. My throat was tender and irritable, and had an aching sensation, which was especially bad at times. I doctored and used several remedies, but received no permanent relief until I used Hyomei. This remedy is certainly infallible, and it saved my life, and I accord it the credit which it deserves. There is nothing too strong for me to say regarding Hyomei."—Mrs. Ada Hopkins, 8 Cutter Ave., Coldwater, Mich., August 22, 1908.

F. W. Jordan sells Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mee) and he guarantees it to cure bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, croup, hay fever, coughs and colds, or money back.

The price for a complete outfit is only $1, which includes a bottle of Hyomei and neat hard rubber inhaler.

ed the endorsement of the convention, contained the following interpretation of section 13, article III.: "No commission of a law judge is disturbed, and the existing provision that no judicial salary shall be decreased during a judicial term is preserved, with the addition that it shall not be increased during such term." Part 2, Journal of the Constitutional Convention, 1873.

In 1889 Governor Beaver, now a judge of the superior court, vetoed a bill similar to that affirmed by Judge von Moschzisker. In his veto message he said: "There can be no doubt that if the present bill become a law and the present judges of our courts were to avail themselves of its provisions without legal protest from any quarter, the bench would be degraded in public esteem and its decisions upon other questions fail of the respect which they now receive and to which they are undoubtedly entitled." He significantly added that he disapproved the bill "in order that the dignity and purity of the bench might be held above suspicion and that the mandates of the constitution be not even questioned."

Robert von Moschzisker, the Philadelphia judge who declared the act of the 14th of April, 1903, about increasing the salaries of judges, constitutional, and that the same was not in conflict with section 13, article III., of the state constitution, because a judge was not a public officer within the meaning of said section, is the same Robert von Moschzisker who is now asking the suffrages of the people of Pennsylvania to elect him to the supreme bench of that state.

The issue is clean cut before the people of this commonwealth in this contest between Cyrus LaRue Munson, the peoples' candidate, and Robert von Moschzisker, whose nomination was forced upon the Republican party at the dictation of the Philadelphia contractors' combine.

The greatest privilege of American citizenship is that of voting. It is the supreme test of political and civic liberty. Patriots in all periods of civilization have jeopardized their lives to secure that great right. Yet there are thousands of citizens of Pennsylvania who will neglect the opportunity to vote at the coming election because to avail themselves of it will cost a brief period of time and some trouble. We hope no Democrats will be so neglectful of their duty.

BOTH BOYS SAVED

Election day is not far distant, but there is ample time between now and then for an industrious Democrat to see a dozen or more neighbors and urge them to attend the election and vote. A full Democratic vote guarantees a complete Democratic victory and that achievement is worth all it would cost if every Democrat in the state gave his entire time to it during the interval.

The fact that the defeat of the Republican ticket this year would compel the Republican managers to nominate better candidates in the future ought to be sufficient reason to guarantee that result, if there were no other reasons. But there are plenty of other reasons.

Every Democrat in Pennsylvania can afford to give a little time to achieve a victory for his party and if every Democrat in the state will do that the victory will be certain.

If every Democrat in Pennsylvania votes this year Slason and Stober will be defeated a good deal worse than J. Lee Plummer was "snowed under" in 1905.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," but the Democrats of Pennsylvania may achieve a great victory at the expense of vigilance for one day. See that no Democrat fails to vote on election day.

The non-partisan meeting held in Pottsville last Friday night in the interest of the Democratic state ticket, C. LaRue Munson for justice of the supreme court, J. Wood Clark for auditor general and George W. Klipp for state treasurer, was a political event of great significance. It was conceived among the Republicans of that machine-cursed county, Schuylkill, and organized and conducted by the better element of that party in that county.

That it will have a marked influence on public sentiment throughout the state there can be no doubt. The example of such men cannot be lost to a conscientious people. Unfortunately the time between now and the election is too short to organize similar meetings in other sections, but the report of this meeting will be read in all sections of the state and the proceedings will be pondered over wherever conscience guides intelligence.

The principal speakers at the meeting were Hon. Henry C. Niles, chairman of the Lincoln party, and William H. Berry, the courageous and capable former state treasurer, who exposed the capitol grafting and saved the public millions of dollars which would have been stolen if he had not revealed the facts. The entire speeches of these gentlemen ought to be read by every voter in the state, but we have only space for brief summaries of them.

Mr. Niles said in part:

The greatest improvement in the political condition of Pennsylvania has been the result of the defeat of bad Republican candidates by independent Republican votes.

More than 100,000 Republicans in the last four years have shown again and again their readiness to vote against a candidate of their party whose bosses have been emboldened to nominate men too outrageously unfit, or by methods too glaringly improper.

These true Republicans are ready at any time when the candidates of their own party are unworthy, to vote for high-class Democrats for administrative or judicial state offices who are absolutely honest and competent, in order that thereby the usurpers of the power of their own party may be punished and the state's administration may be reformed.

No political event has been more manifestly for the benefit of the commonwealth than the defeat four years ago of Plummer, the Republican candidate for state treasurer, by independent Republican votes, and the election of the Democratic candidate, William H. Berry.

The situation of four years ago is now paralleled. The manipulators of the Republican organization have had enough of such men as Stuart, Young and Sheatz. They are tired of even the small appearance of being honest. They believe the people have again gone to sleep, and that it will be safe to renew their usual tactics and follow their natural instincts.

In their nomination of Stober and Slason they have returned to the old Plummer and Snyder type, and have turned from an experienced jurist like Judge Rice, to put upon the bench of the supreme court the selection of the contractor bosses of Philadelphia.

By a happy providence, the Democratic candidates, Munson for the supreme court, Klipp for state treasurer, and Clark for auditor general, are of the highest type of public men, and are unhampered by any personal or party obligations inconsistent with their duties to the whole people.

They should be supported by the same independent Republican sentiment and vote that supported John Stewar for the supreme court and Berry for the treasury in 1905.

Following is a brief outline of Mr. Berry's speech:

It argues well for the future of Pennsylvania politics that representative of opposing political parties are found upon the same platform urging the election of the same candidates for state offices. The "independent habit" seems to be growing upon our citizens. Far from being a mere comfortable and well fitting it may ordinarily be, sits very lightly upon an increasing number of our citizens and may be instantly removed by a touch of the independent button.

The candidates on the Democratic ticket are men of exceptional character and fitness for the offices for which they have been named, and no possible question can arise as to their entire freedom from obligation to any coteries of bosses. When elected they will be free to serve the whole people who are alone their masters.

I have long believed that one of the greatest evils in Pennsylvania politics is the enormous preponderance of the Republican party strength over its strongest opponent. The practical certainty of Republican success has caused an unscrupulous horde of office and spoils seekers of every, but of no political faith whatever, to gravitate to it, and of this material the Republican party has become a "machine" largely formed.

So bold and daring had this policy grown that in 1905 the independent Republican voters joined with the Democrats and elected a Democrat to a state office. The mere presence of this officer at Harrisburg for the brief term of two years resulted in the exposure of a system of barefaced robbery unparalleled in history and specific instance, involving the theft of millions.

A spasm of simulated virtue followed this exposure. Candidates of the highest personal character and, in some instances, of independent tendencies, were named by the organization and elected by narrow majorities. Much superficial good resulted from their selection but, encouraged by a return of the usual majorities, the machine is again defiant and comes into the field with candidates of the old regime.

Nor is there the slightest evidence of repentance or reform among them. Senator Quay was the designer of their methods and the practical maker of the machine for their execution. Of all the men connected with it, this man and his record is most notoriously objectionable. Yet witness the fact that in spite of an almost universal opposition, expressed and implied, his statue in marble has been erected in the capitol at Harrisburg, a perpetual insult to all reform and a standing rebuke to all reformers.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Bedford People Know How to Save It.

Many Bedford people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. The following statement leaves no ground for doubt.

Mrs. William Adams, Clarence St., Hyndman, Pa., says: "My son was troubled with kidney complaint since childhood. At the age of three he became bloated, until he was nearly twice his normal size and though we tried everything we learned of only temporary relief resulted. His kidneys were always weak and he had no control over the secretions, this causing us much inconvenience and worry. Just recently I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box. The first few doses gave him relief and he is now in better health than he has been in years. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as a reliable kidney remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. Oct. 22-21.

The Quay statue was brought into the capitol at Harrisburg the other day with a hood of black burlap over its head and a heavy rope around its neck. As it thus stood on the platform erected to facilitate the work of placing it in the niche chosen for its use it made a gloomy spectacle. As hundreds of persons were passing through the rotunda one observer remarked that the presence of a sheriff to spring the trap would be appropriate.

Work For Victory.

A week from next Tuesday is election day and every hour of the time intervening which Democrats can spare from their usual vocations ought to be given to preparing for that event. Discuss the relative merits of the candidates, urge upon others the importance of a change in the politics of the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings, arrange to get all voters to the polls and see that every Democrat entitled to vote performs that civic duty. It will be worth all it costs in time and trouble to any man of family or any citizen of any condition in life. The forces which elected William H. Berry to the office of state treasurer in 1905 are united and active in the interest of C. LaRue Munson for justice of the supreme court; J. Wood Clark for auditor general, and George W. Kipp for state treasurer. The Lincoln Party men and other independent Republicans to the number of more than 100,000, who voted for Berry, will vote for them. If the Democrats do their duty this year as they did then, Munson, Clark and Kipp will be elected, as Berry was by a large majority. No man, of whatever political antecedents, regretted the election of Berry. No fair minded man will regret the election of Munson, Clark and Kipp.

If Berry had not been elected the grafting in the capitol furnishings would be going on yet and by this time $25,000,000, or possibly more, would have been stolen from the treasury. If Clark and Kipp are not elected this year the grafting will be resumed as soon as their antagonists are inducted into office. This is a matter to ponder over. The revenues which ought to be used in equipping schools, constructing highways and performing other needed public improvements will go to enriching political scoundrels as was the case before the election of Berry.

There are enough Democrats in Pennsylvania to elect the entire Democratic ticket by a good majority and there is enough incentive in that result to bring every Democrat to the performance of his duty. The election of the Democratic ticket in this state this year will guarantee improvement in political morals and methods, moreover, which will endure for twenty-five years, for even though the Republican party is restored to power next year, the scourging will have a good effect and it will have learned the lesson that decent nominations are essential to party success even in Pennsylvania.

Berry Predicts Big Democratic Victory.
Former State Treasurer William H. Berry, of Chester, who was in Harrisburg this week, uttered a belief in the probability of a Democratic victory on the state ticket next month.

"I have been all over the state," said Mr. Berry, "and find a great deal of anti-organization sentiment. I do not find so much idolatry for the gang that used to be so manifest. The people are getting very tired of machine rule and they do not hesitate to speak out loud. Altogether, I should pronounce things in most excellent condition for a Democratic victory."

DEFEAT THE 7TH AMENDMENT

Such a Provision In Our Fundamental Law Involves Danger.

The proposed seventh amendment to the constitution is absolutely without merit. Its only purpose is to increase the power of the political machine over the will of the people. For some years the machine managers have been striving to usurp the power of naming election officers. During the session of the legislature of 1905 an attempt was made to transfer the power of filling vacancies in election boards in cities from the courts to the commissioners. It failed because the country members of the general assembly appreciated the peril involved. The proposed constitutional amendment is simply another attempt to accomplish the result.

No thoughtful man can misunderstand the purpose which the projectors of this scheme have in mind. It is to take power out of the hands of the people and lodge it in the hands of the party machine. The most potent political offices in all our electoral system are those which compose the election boards. The judge and inspectors of elections have almost the power to determine the qualifications of a voter. Thousands of men can be denied the right of suffrage upon technicalities by them. For that reason election officers are chosen with great care by the voters. In many instances the candidates of the opposite party are chosen because of their known integrity, notwithstanding they belong to the minority party in their districts.

If the legislature, drunk with power, as that of this state frequently has been, should determine to seize the advantage of corrupt and partisan election boards, the adoption of this seventh amendment to the constitution opens the way for them to accomplish that result. Every voter should set his face against this danger. It is not a question of political principles. It is purely a matter of party iniquity. Such an amendment to the fundamental law of the state will work grievous harm, and the way to avoid that result is to defeat the proposed amendment. There is little, if any, good in any of the amendments but there is vast evil in the seventh.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for much sickness and suffering, therefore, if kidney trouble is permitted to continue, serious results are most likely to follow. Your other organs may need attention, but your kidneys most, because they do most and should have attention first. Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root. A trial will convince you of its great merit. The mild and immediate effect of Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest because its remarkable health restoring properties have been proven in thousands of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, and don't let a dealer sell you something in place of Swamp-Root—if you do you will be disappointed.

Nothing so good when you need a pill as Rings Little Liver Pills—small, sure, easy. Sold by Ed. D. Heckerman.

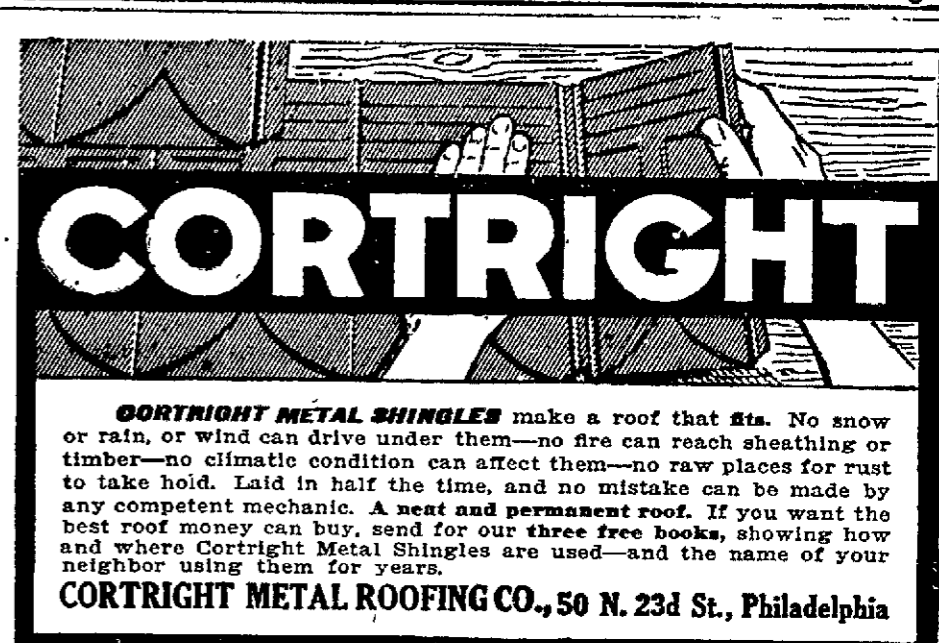

Don't Forget.

[From the Philadelphia Record.]
An extra session of congress was called by the president to redeem the promise of the Republican party platform to revise the tariff so as to effect a reduction of duties. But the bill as enacted increased the duty on manufactory celluloid about 15 per cent; on unmanufactured pumice stone by 100 per cent; on razors, 60 per cent; on watch movements, 100 per cent; on shingles, 66 per cent; on hops, 33 per cent; on figs, 25 per cent; on dates 100 per cent; on lemons, 50 per cent; on pineapples, 15 per cent; on cotton stockings, 33 per cent; on hemp, 11 per cent; on matting, 16 per cent; on writing paper, 50 per cent; on quilts made of down, 20 per cent; on artificial or ornamental feathers, 50 per cent; on manufactures of leather, 14 per cent; of fur, 14 per cent; of India rubber, 16 per cent; of bone, 10 per cent; of willow and willow furniture, 12 per cent; on willow for basket making, 25 per cent, and many other increases.

There were some reductions, but the duty on wool and woollens remains abhorrent and untouched; and the duty on cottons was essentially increased. A more stupendous fraud was never perpetrated upon a long-suffering nation.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET

Justice of the Supreme Court,
C. La Rue Munson of Lycoming County.

State Treasurer,
George W. Kipp of Bradford County.
Auditor General,
J. Wood Clark of Indiana County.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET

Associate Judge,
John Wesley Huff of Saxton.
Director of the Poor,
James B. Cessna of Rainsburg.
Jury Commissioner,
William Drenning of West Providence.

It hardly seems possible that there are taxpayers in the historic and enlightened old town of Bedford who are going to vote for Bair because they fear an increase in the tax rate to build another reservoir to take care of the increased consumption of water in case of Huff's election.

THE STATE TICKET

The Democratic state ticket is fast gaining ground. The recent speech at Pottstown, published elsewhere in this issue, by Hon. Henry C. Niles, Chairman of the Lincoln party, in which he came out boldly for the whole Democratic ticket, clearly indicates the attitude of those independent Republicans who refused to be dominated by the "masqueraders" and joined the Democrats in the election of William H. Berry as State Treasurer.

In that instance they made no mistake for they assisted in the election of one fearless and honest, without whose presence at the state capitol the graft practiced in furnishing the palace would never have been brought to light.

The Democratic ticket is composed of men of clean records and of high standing; men well qualified to fill the positions they seek.

The Republican ticket was selected by the bosses and forced upon the party, and they were selected largely as a reward for very questionable political work. Their selection is a return to the kind of men the gang put up for office before the revolt of the Lincolnites compelled them temporarily to depart from combine customs and nominate a Stuart and a Sheatz.

The people of the state have not forgotten the $6,000,000 steal and they are also aware that though there were convictions no one of the guilty parties has yet served an hour behind the bars.

With the independent Republicans in their favor the Democratic candidates have a good chance for election despite the big normal majority to be overcome.

MR. HUFF HAS NOT WITHDRAWN

In some mysterious way, familiar only to some politicians, a rumor got afloat last week that J. Wesley Huff, the Democratic-Prohibition candidate for Associate Judge, would be withdrawn and the temperance voters of the county would be urged to support the regular Republican nominee. This report caused serious and widespread alarm and led to a manifestation of much interest in the conference called by the Anti-Saloon League. Every intelligent man of the county knows very well that whatever of real moral worth there is in the present no-license campaign more credit belongs to Mr. Huff, who was the original, out-spoken advocate of such a contest, than to any other man.

The character of Mr. Huff is unquestioned, his reputation is of the very highest, his endorsement the most flattering and the promised support of the independent thinkers of the county of all parties, added to the Democratic and Prohibition vote he will poll, gives him first claim upon the vote of all temperance people as well as first chance in the race for the Judgeship.

The character, availability, and prospect of success of all the leading candidates was considered both behind closed doors and in open conference and if there was any set purpose to have Mr. Huff withdraw it surely must have been frustrated, for one needed but look into the faces of the assembled people in the afternoon to see the smile of satisfaction on the faces of those who supported Mr. Huff. It was interesting to hear Rev. Mr. Eslinger, the Methodist pastor of Saxton, set forth the claims, the character, the convictions and the struggles of his neighbor and friend. As he presented the undoubted fitness of this man for the office he seeks and spoke of the manly contest he is making, one could not help but feel that whether one agreed with Mr. Huff or not on the license question, he was deserving of the support of all good thinking people.

So we announce to our readers that Mr. Huff has not withdrawn. He is still the nominee of the Democratic and the Prohibition parties, and will continue to be, with the expectation that one Democratic Judge will soon occupy a seat beside the Republican Judges to give a fair interpretation to the law and mete out justice to all.

CANDIDATES FOR JUDGE

It is but a short time until the voters of the county will decide by their ballots who shall sit upon the local bench instead of His Honor, William J. Diehl. It is a peculiar four-cornered fight, there being the two regular nominees of the Democratic and Republican parties, Jacob M. Gump, Independent, and Thaddeus S. Bair, the candidate of the liquor element, on the Taxpayers' ticket.

It is a foundation principle of Democracy that the majority shall rule. The majority of the Democrats of the county—and a very large majority—at the last primary declared in favor of John W. Huff as the Democratic candidate for Associate Judge. Having been fairly and honestly nominated by his party he merits the undivided support of that party at the coming election.

Mr. Huff's position on the matter of the granting of licenses to sell liquor has been clearly defined and is well known, as it was when his party selected him as the candidate, and his frank and open statement of his position is going to win for him a great many independent votes. His chances of election are good and if the Democrats of the county stand by him as he deserves to be stood by he will occupy the chair vacated by His Honor, Judge Diehl.

The attempt on the part of the opposition papers to make capital of the fact that Mr. Huff was, in time past, an applicant for license will do him no harm.

It was nothing to the discredit of Francis Murphy that he turned from his former habits of life and became a temperance advocate of power and influence. John B. Gough is not censured for facing about and wielding so powerful an influence for temperance and for the right. Neither will it prove detrimental to the candidacy of John Wesley Huff that he was once an applicant for a liquor license.

The man who, seeing the error of his way, can stand before his fellows, face about and follow his convictions, is an infinitely better type of citizenship than the weakling who, fearing the jeers of the throng, fails to follow new convictions. John W. Huff is the candidate for whom all believers in local option should vote; they know just where he stands and can count on him. With the Democratic vote and the independent temperance vote he will be elected.

There will be preaching at Coal Dale on October 24 at 10:30 a. m.; at North Point at 2 p. m.; and at Round Knob at 7 p. m. Preaching each evening at Round Knob at 7:30 p. m. F. W. McGuire, Pastor.

TEACHERS' MEETINGS

Superintendent Barkman Names Representatives for Organization.

The teachers of the various districts will organize Institutes, Educational Meetings, Societies, Farmers' Institutes, Guilds or any organization which they wish to effect for the purpose of discussing plans and exchanging ideas on methods of procedure to interest and instruct the boys and girls of the county in educational lines and the general public in free education.

The County Superintendent will appoint a representative in each district to call the teachers into convention, act as temporary chairman until a permanent organization is effected and report any truancy, or neglect of duty on the part of any teacher to take part when assigned work. When any teacher is absent from the meeting an excuse should be sent to the representative either on the day of meeting or as soon after as it is possible. Several districts have already organized and reported.

There should be at least one meeting each month; two would be better. The Superintendent makes a memorandum of these meetings and takes this record into consideration when granting certificates. An active, energetic teacher will receive a better mark in Methods than one whose energies lie dormant.

The representatives and their districts are named below:

Bedford Borough, J. M. Garbrick.
Bedford Township, Orange Dively.
Cumberland Valley, David S. Fetters.

East St. Clair and St. Clairsville, Roy S. Claycomb.

King, C. L. Imbler.

Kimmell, John C. Burket.

Union, J. Lloyd Ickes.

Lincoln, Chester Machtley.

West St. Clair and Pleasantville, Lloyd H. Hinkle.

Napier, New Paris and Schellsburg, George L. Wolfe.

Junata, Fred Mowery.

Harrison and Mann's Choice, J. Kimber Grimm.

Hyndman and Londonderry, W. B. Erhart.

Rainsburg and Colerain, Emanuel Nangle.

Snake Spring, Ellis Van Horn.

Loysburg, New Enterprise and South Woodbury, O. G. Snyder.

Bloomfield, E. C. Pote.

Woodbury Borough and Woodbury Township, H. M. Guyer.

Liberty and Saxton, H. E. Seville.

Broad Top, Coal Dale and Hopewell Borough, H. H. Brumbaugh.

Hopewell Township, John Zimmerman.

Everett Borough, J. W. Erney.

West Providence, John M. Karns.

East Providence, Ernest Walters.

Monroe and Mechanic's Independent, Amanda C. Barkman.

Mann, O. Mae Tewell.

Southampton, Conda Kneec.

When it is more convenient for a teacher to attend in a district other than the one assigned, the representative should be notified and the attendance must be regular and permanent.

Yours truly,

Victor E. P. Barkman,
County Superintendent.

FOR POOR DIRECTOR

Democratic Candidate Is Highly Commended.

Editor Gazette:

In the interest manifested by our people in the temperance question, especially as it is connected with the election of an Associate Judge, there is some danger that the selection of officials for minor positions on the ticket to be voted may be overlooked and ignored.

Important as the Temperance Question may be, I regard the careful attention to our unfortunate and helpless population, and the watchful guardianship of the interests of our County Alms House, of equal concern to all our people.

Without overlooking the merits of other candidates, permit me to call attention of all our people, irrespective of politics, to the candidacy of Mr. James B. Cessna, who is before the voters for re-election, as the minority representative on the Board of Directors of the Poor.

No fair-minded citizen will question the propriety of having a member of the opposition party on the said Board—and no fair-minded citizen, who has taken any interest in our Alms House, can deny but that its management has been materially improved since Mr. Cessna has been concerned in its supervision and control.

His kind and sympathetic disposition, his personal habits of economy, his good judgment in regard to purchases of food and clothing, his knowledge and experience as a farmer and a stockman, all combine to make him, as he has proven himself to be, a first-class Director of the Poor.

I believe that the interests of all the people of the county will be best served by a continuance of Mr. Cessna as such official—and I do unhesitatingly commend him to the kind and careful consideration and support of all the electors of the county, who desire that the Alms House and its surroundings shall be conducted on a fair, prudent, economical and humane manner.

Material is being unloaded every day and the laying of track from Brook's Mills to Wine-land's Mill is being pushed along so that bridge material may be unloaded, as it will be necessary to put this bridge in place before work on the cut through Barney Hill can be started.—McKee Cor. in Altoona Tribune.

Rev. Vibbert of Boston, Mass., delivered a temperance lecture here last Wednesday evening. He produced the very best arguments why the rum traffic should be abolished. He will make addresses in various parts of the county.

A telegram came here on Tuesday announcing the death of M. V. B. Gates of our town in a hotel in Richmond, where he had gone to attend the unveiling of a monument at Cold Harbor. His death was evidently due to apoplexy as the gas was turned on full. He was a veteran of the Union army and was aged 67 years. His remains will be brought home today.

As the time for election draws near it is well that the voters consider carefully the standing of each candidate for Associate Judge. In I. W. Huff of Saxton we have a candidate who was nominated on the Democratic and Prohibition tickets. He has made his position clear on the temperance question and was the first candidate to bring the temperance cause to the front in this campaign. While the office he seeks is not a political one the minority party should have a representative on the bench. Vote for John Wesley Huff.

Lesson IV.—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 24, 1909.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Acts xxvi, 19-32. Memory Verses, 27-29—Golden Text, II Tim. i, 12—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

After being two years or more a prisoner at Caesarea, Festus being governor instead of Felix and having gone up to Jerusalem, the high priest and chief of the Jews inform him against Paul and desire him to bring Paul to Jerusalem, intending, if he consented, to lay in wait for him and kill him. Festus replied that they must come to Caesarea and there appear against him. This they did; but, as before, it was simply a case of complaints which they could not prove. In reply to Festus' question, "Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged?" he appealed to Caesar. King Agrippa having come to visit Festus, the case is brought to his attention as one of Jewish superstition concerning one Jesus who was dead, but whom Paul affirmed to be alive (xxv, 19). The world cares just about as much today about Him of whom they speak as "one Jesus," and the church does not commend Him to the world much more, if any, than the Jews did their God, of whom they cried, "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord" (Deut vi, 4).

Agrippa and Bernice having entered the place of hearing with great pomp, accompanied by the chief captains and principal men of the city, Paul is brought before them, and, after a brief statement by Festus, Paul is permitted to speak for himself. He told of his early life as a Pharisee and his zeal against the followers of Jesus until the risen and ascended Christ met him on the way to Damascus, saved him and made him His messenger to the gentiles to turn them from darkness to light and from the power of Satan unto God, that they might receive forgiveness of sins and inheritance among them who are sanctified by faith in Christ. He told how, in obedience to the vision from heaven, he had at Damascus, Jerusalem, throughout Judea and to the gentiles preached that they should repent and turn to God and prove the reality of it in their lives; that all their prophets had testified that the Messiah of Israel should suffer and die and rise from the dead and that He should through Israel, the twelve tribes, give light to the gentiles after the resurrection at the second coming of Christ. Along this line of truth as to the teaching of the prophets and the fulfillment of their predictions both Peter and Stephen and our Lord Himself, in Luke xxiv, all taught. It is the one story which the Scriptures tell and authorize us to tell, that Israel's Messiah shall bless the world through Israel.

On the way to Damascus Jesus had revealed Himself to Saul as truly the Messiah, but had also at some time taught him a mystery not revealed in the prophets—that during Israel's rejection because of their rejection of their Messiah He would gather from all nations a people called the church, His body, who should by discipline here be fitted to come with Christ in His glory and reign with Him in His kingdom, when Jerusalem shall be the throne of the Lord and Israel a righteous nation. It is our privilege, as it was Paul's, to go into all the world with the glad tidings of forgiveness of sins for all who will receive the Lord Jesus because of His suffering for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God. And all who in this age truly receive Him shall be manifested with Him when Israel shall see Him coming in the clouds with power and glory and shall say, "This is our God; we have waited for Him, and He will save us" (Isa. xxv, 9). As to the mystery of this age specially revealed to Paul, see Rom. xi, 25-27; xvi, 25, 26; Eph. iii, etc. We may be quite sure that that company of earth's great ones never heard a story like this before, and we do not wonder that Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad" (24). There are very few companies of the Lord's people (so called) who to day know the story as Paul set it forth that day, and where there is a preacher who thus believes and teaches he is not apt to be counted a man of much learning, but, rather, an unlearned man, weak-minded, mentally unbalanced. We can reply, as Paul did, "We are not mad, but speak forth the words of truth and soberness" (25). The test question is that which Paul addressed to Agrippa, "Believest thou the prophets?" for "surely the Lord God will do nothing, but He revealeth His secret unto His servants the prophets" (Amos iii, 7).

In Agrippa's reply there are three words which are specially full of significance, "almost a Christian." We think of another, "not far from the kingdom of God," but we remember that all who were not actually in the ark with Noah perished, and then those starting words, "He that hath not the Son of God hath not life;" "He that believeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him" (I John v, 12; John iii, 36). So that "almost a Christian" simply means "lost," but who can tell the meaning of that word? May none who read ever know the doom of the lost. With a burning heart and with burning words Paul declared his longing for that day, might stand in Christ as he did.

PUT YOUR "NO" THERE

Clinton County Republican Newspaper Points Out a Danger.

[From the Williamsport Sun.] We find the Look Haven Express, the leading Republican newspaper in Clinton county, cautioning its readers against the seventh proposed amendment to the state constitution to be voted for at the election next month, the provision of which purposes to make possible the creation of district election boards by appointment rather than by a vote of the people, as now provided. Upon this question the Express says:

If this amendment were adopted the legislature would have the power to change the system of choosing election officers. Now they might pass a law providing that they be elected. The voters will have an opportunity to vote separately upon this amendment. Those who believe that the system of choosing election officers by popular vote is better than the selection of such officers by a commission, perhaps dominated by the politicians, may express their convictions by marking a "No" after amendment seven.

The Express, nobly performing a conscientious duty to its readers, points out with unerring accuracy, and with admirable frankness, the vulnerable point in this proposed amendment when it declares that "it may be dominated by the politicians," meaning the appointment of election officers. That possibility ought to be reason enough why amendment number seven should receive the "No" of every man who believes in safeguarding the ballot against any further political collusion and consequent debasement. And then, too, the opinion of the Express is so very refreshing when compared with the incompatible expressions of some of the machine-dominated Republican newspapers in this section of the state.

Figures Indicate Democratic Victory.

More than 450,000 votes were cast in this state for William Jennings Bryan, Democratic candidate for president. These votes were practically all cast by Democrats. It may be assumed that there are now that many Democrats in the state. In 1905, 127,512 votes were cast for William H. Berry in the Lincoln party column. All these voters are supporting the Democratic ticket this year. The full vote of the Democratic party, supported by the full vote of the Lincoln party, therefore, would give the Democratic candidates nearly 600,000 votes.

In 1906 Edwin S. Stuart, Republican candidate for governor, polled 501,818 votes, or about 100,000 less than the combined strength of the Democrats and the Lincoln party. This year there is an absolute certainty of the full strength of the Lincoln party vote for the Democratic candidates. Eighty per cent of the Democratic strength added to this force would be within a few thousand of the votes received by Edwin S. Stuart, easily the best and most popular candidate the Republican party has nominated for a dozen years, while 90 per cent of the Democratic vote would aggregate considerably more than his total.

Thus it will be seen that if the Democrats are alert and just to their candidates the election of their ticket is certain this year. Slisnon and Stober will not poll near the vote cast for Stuart. If they did the fact would cast an aspersion upon the integrity of the voters. On the other hand, if the Democrats cast less than 90 per cent of their full strength for their admirable ticket this year the fact will be a reflection upon their patriotism. Democrats should see that the best expectations with respect to their vote is fulfilled.

It's a Question of Business.

There are various ways of creating interest in a political campaign. The best is to talk upon the issues involved. In the present campaign there is absolutely no politics. A justice of the supreme court, an auditor general or a state treasurer is completely divorced from politics, if he is fit for the office, while in service. The only question, therefore, is one of business. Do the voters of Pennsylvania want the revenues they pay in the shape of taxes disbursed for the public good or diverted into the pockets of political crooks?

The Penrose machine believes in government for the benefit of the individuals who compose it. Slisnon and Stober, if elected, will conduct their offices so that opportunities for graft will multiply. We are not influenced by conjecture to this opinion. Their records in the state senate show that they have always been slaves of the machine. Neither of them ever cast a vote against a measure desired by the machine or for one to which the machine was opposed. It is not likely that they will change their habits in the event of their election.

During the two years in which William P. Snyder, auditor general, and W. S. Mathews, state treasurer, occupied seats in the board of public grounds and buildings, $9,000,000 were stolen out of the treasury. All that money came out of the pockets of the people and belonged to the people. If it had been used in supporting schools or constructing highways an equal amount would have been saved to the people which Slisnon and Stober in local taxes. If Slisnon and Stober are elected this system of spoliation will be resumed.

The Democrats have no office holders to assess in order to make up a campaign fund, but they have no votes to buy, either, and there are patriotic Democrats enough to make up the lesser amount necessary to conduct a legitimate campaign.

A Voice From Juniata

New Buena Vista, Oct. 20, 1909
There is considerable disturbance in Juniata Township on the subject of the election of an Associate Judge. Juniata, under ordinary circumstances, should a vote be had as to whether it should be wet or dry, would go wet by a sound majority. However, there are in and around New Buena Vista, as well as in other parts of the township, men who are strong advocates of the cause of temperance. Had the election been held two months ago with the present candidates in the field, while Barr would undoubtedly have carried the township, his majority would have been much less than it is likely to be under present conditions.

While there was a licensed house in Buena Vista the town was orderly and quiet. But within two days after the burning of Kerr's hotel pandemonium broke loose and has been keeping up ever since. A jug line has been established, and the back door and the behind-the-stable method of distribution of Satan's brew is being practiced.

I am for prohibition. If my vote could wipe out liquor, never would another drop be sold. But in the few weeks that we have had no license in Buena Vista, I have been brought face to face with facts, and, much as I am opposed to the liquor traffic, I am forced to say, even against my will I feel it my duty to say that, bad as they are, the present conditions with the Brooks High License Law is infinitely better than the abolition of license altogether.

I have no personal acquaintance with any of the candidates. But from what I have learned of Thad S. Bair I am satisfied that he is safe, sound and conservative, and I have determined to cast my vote for him. I do this because I have seen conditions
